

Graphic designer Internship Role description

Reporting to Creative Director

Hours/ place of work Part time hours/Flexible
Can work from home once fully briefed using Skype

Rate On commission

Closing date

For application Friday 14th February

Start date Thursday 20th February

Company background

Dew Organic Clothing is a Birmingham based start up business specialising in organic and ethical fabrics. We make all our garments with fabrics produced in a place that gives fair wages and safe working conditions to workers and has minimal impact on the environment.

Garments are all made in the UK on a bespoke and made to measure service.

Responsibilities of the role

- To support the Creative Director with developing the identity of the brand by revisiting the brand logo and creating brochures

- Possibility of further work in print development for the right candidate

Person specification

- Creative flair and talent for design

- Have good technical knowledge of design softwares used for creating logo, brochures and prints

- Good time management skills

- Friendly personality with a flexible approach to work

How to apply

Please send your CV to angela@deworganicclothing.co.uk